KEEPING the FAITH

Pastor Joel Pukallus

South-West Qld Lutheran Parish

Ask most people what they think Christianity is about and they will tell you about the things that Christians hate or condemn.
Probably because for many Christians, sadly, this is their starting point.

Most people today even think being Christian means being political, and only one side of politics at that! And it is not true.

Jesus himself did not care at all about politics. And he did not condemn anyone, no matter what they did, (although he did try to free some of the people he met from the more harmful things in their lives).

No, the ones he saved the most anger for were the ones who put up walls and kept others outside, who drew lines, who thought they were better than others.

Where have we gone wrong? The earliest Christians were known not for what they hated, but by their LOVE for one another, and everyone else.

We need to remember Grace. (Love we do not deserve).

A loving God gives it to us all freely. No matter what you do or have done, God loves you as his child.
Christians know this. If they do not pass it on, call them out on it.
